

Application The applicants are asked to submit online links of performances. Detailed information about the application form and procedure can be found on our website:

www.bilkentpianofestival.com

Artist Director Yoonie Han (Bilkent University)

Artist Faculty Eduardus Halim (New York University)
Boaz Sharon (Boston University)
Hyun Sook Tekin (Mamara University)

Tuition Active Participants for €300, and Passive Participants for €100. Early applications by April 1, will get 10% discount from the tuition.

Lessons Active Participants will have 3 private lessons and 1 public masterclass. Passive Participants will have a chance to play 1 masterclass.

Young Artists Concert will take place in Bilkent Concert Hall and various venues in Ankara.

Career Development Seminars offer private and daily career guidance sessions with the Associate Dean of The Juilliard School, Vice Presidents of Naxos of Americas, Opus 3 Artists, New York Philharmonic, Gloriosa Piano Trio...

Conducting Seminars offer participants knowledge in ensemble performance and insight into conductors language of technique and expression.

Physiology Seminars teaches overcoming physical problems such as controlling anxiety, stress, tension, and ways to prevent performance injuries.

Lunch & Learn offers participants to have a chance to speak with artist faculty members during daily lunch hour. A perfect opportunity to meet their mentors in a social environment.

Excursions in Ankara will take you to old and historic parts of Ankara and traditional Turkish food journey.

Application Deadline April 1 (10% discount) or May 1 (full tuition)
No application fee. Apply with bank transfer of 50% of tuition.
100% refund for applications that are not accepted.

Information and online-application
www.bilkentpianofestival.com

Contact us bilkentpianofestival@gmail.com